Dear Parents and Carers,

'Tis the season to be jolly! Our Christmas preparations are now in full swing. Decorations are being hung and classrooms doors are being adorned with all sorts of festive delights- keep an eye out on ClassDojo for your child's classroom door- these will be being judged next Friday by school council and Mr Dawson, one of our school governors! Who will the winner be?

Tickets for the performances are being sent out this evening. I have made a request for parents to attend the day time performances where time allows to enable any parents who can't attend these slots to have access to the night time performance. I do understand frustration surrounding getting these seats causes and am always open to suggestions on ways to improve!

On Tuesday Mrs Wilson and I took a group of children on the trip of a lifetime to take part in "Childflight". This is an annual event that schools can apply to take part in. We were lucky enough to be allocated 9 seats on the plane and we got to spend an hour in the air searching for Santa! We did eventually find him and he even landed on the roof of the plane, before guiding the plane back into land at Manchester Airport. This was a wonderful day for all involved and we are extremely grateful to the charity for considering us for some places. We hope to be able to join in again next year!

Tonight, we are holding our annual Christmas Fair. There is a rumour that we may be hosting a very special guest.... he wears a red cloak and trousers.....and was spotted in the Manchester area earlier this week! We look forward to seeing many of you this evening. For those who cannot attend, we will be selling raffle tickets for the coloured hampers throughout next week aswell to enable as many people who would like to purchase tickets to be able to do so. Photos of the hampers will be posted on ClassDojo later today!

As a final point, you will notice that next Tuesday we are again hosting NSPCC events in school. These are for Year 2, 5 and 6 and build on the assemblies which were held last week. If you do wish to discuss these workshops at all, please get in touch!

As always, if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch.
